

Language, art and action

3rd Inter-Nordic Philosophical Symposium,
Store Milde, Bergen, May 19–23, 1982.

Arrangement committee: Kjell S. Johannessen, Tore Nordenstam, Gunnar Skirbekk
The programme includes a series of lectures on the general theme of language, art and action by:

Joe Margolis (Philadelphia)

Peter Kemp (Copenhagen)

Jakob Meløe (Tromsø)

Göran Hermerén (Lund)

Peter Winch (London)

Mike Marlies (Reykjavik)

Lars Hertzberg (Turku)

Workshops will be organized on the following themes:

aesthetics

(planning committee: Lars Hertzberg, Turku; Kjell S. Johannessen, Bergen; Tore Nordenstam, Bergen);

culture and society:

minority problems from a philosophical point of view

(planning committee: Alf Keskitalo and Jakob Meløe, Tromsø);

social and political philosophy

(planning committee: Helge Høibraaten, Trondheim; Audun Øfsti, Trondheim; Hans Skjervheim, Bergen);

philosophy of science

(planning committee: Ingvar Johansson, Umeå; Gunnar Skirbekk, Bergen).

The site chosen for the symposium, the mansion Store Milde just outside Bergen, provides beautiful and peaceful surroundings and excellent conference facilities. Accommodation and full board will be around 750,— Norwegian Crowns. Due to limitations of space, the number of participants has to be limited to 65, spread fairly over the Nordic countries.

Inquiries and registrations to be sent to Tore Nordenstam, Filosofisk institutt, Sydnesplass 9, N-5000 Bergen, before April 1, 1982.

Tore Nordenstam
Professor of philosophy
University of Bergen

*Språk
kunst og handling*